

The Asian American Bar Association (AABA) of Houston is a voluntary organization of lawyers of Asian heritage or who have Asian American interests, dedicated to promoting diversity within the legal profession and Houston community.

25TH ANNIVERSARY GALA & SILENT AUCTION

On Friday, August 28, 2009, over 300 guests celebrated the AABA's 25th Anniversary Gala & Silent Auction at the beautiful InterContinental Hotel. Channel 39's Andrea Nguyen, the Mistress of Ceremonies, kicked off the evening with an energetic welcome to the attendees, and Houston Mayor Bill White gave a memorable keynote speech. Recipients of the Asian American Bar Foundation's Public Interest Scholarships and Judicial Internship Stipends were recognized. An inspiring video chronicling the AABA's history and legacy capped off the evening's events followed by the recognition of the AABA's past Presidents for their vision and dedication to making the AABA the organization that it is today.

The AABA is especially grateful to this year's Gala underwriters, in-kind sponsors and Silent Auction donors for their continued, generous support for the AABA, particularly in these challenging economic times. In addition to the receipts from the Silent Auction, the Asian American Bar Foundation received donations of $2,250 from the Harry Gee Family Fund and $2,000 from AGL Resources, Inc.

Special thanks go to our extremely capable and hardworking Gala Co-Chairs Miranda-Lin Bailey and Alice Huang; Silent Auction Chair Carmen Nguyen; members of the Gala & Silent Auction Committee; the many law student volunteers; and AABA President-Elect Joyce Kao Soliman. Without their tireless effort and commitment, this evening would not have been possible.

AABA WOMEN'S RETREAT

Saturday, September 26

8:30-9:00 a.m. – Coffee and Pastries
9:00-12:30 p.m. – Program

Greenberg Traurig, LLP
1000 Louisiana Street
Suite 1700

AABA members: Free / Non-AABA Members: $10*

To register, please contact AABA VP of Programs Judy Liu
(judy.liu@centerpointenergy.com) or visit www.aabahouston.com

(*Open to female attorneys only at this time. Subject to availability, the event may be opened to female law students at a later date)

The AABA is excited to announce its inaugural Women's Retreat! Join the women of the AABA for a candid and thought-provoking discussion of issues facing Asian-American women attorneys, such as dealing with stereotypes in the workplace, working with support staff, and developing and nurturing mentoring relationships. The retreat will also be a great opportunity to get to know your fellow AABA members better in an informal, relaxed atmosphere. We hope to see you on September 26th!

THE AABA OF HOUSTON,
HOUSTON VOLUNTEER LAWYERS PROGRAM,
OCA GREATER HOUSTON CHAPTER, AND CATHOLIC CHARITIES ARE PROUD TO HOST THE

2009 NATURALIZATION & CITIZENSHIP CLINIC

Saturday, October 17, 2009
9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

MetroBank Community Center
Dynasty Plaza
9600 Bellaire, Suite 201

The AABA is looking for volunteers to assist in preparing applications for members of the Asian American community wishing to become naturalized citizens. While volunteers do not need to be an immigration specialist, all volunteers will be required to undergo a brief training program prior to the Clinic. The AABA also is looking for immigration specialist volunteers to review completed application forms and answer questions volunteers and applicants may have on the day of the Clinic.

The AABA also would greatly appreciate if you could spread the word about the Clinic to family and friends who are interested in applying for naturalization. To register for the Clinic, applicants must call the Clinic's intake representative at 713-523-7852 between September 28, 2009 and October 2, 2009, between 9:00 am and 12:00 pm to reserve an appointment for the day of the Clinic.

For more information or to volunteer for the Clinic, please contact
AABA President Warren Huang at whuang@fulbright.com.

OPPORTUNITIES

MICHAEL AND SUSAN DELL FOUNDATION – LEGAL COUNSEL POSITION

The Michael & Susan Dell Foundation is a private family foundation dedicated to transforming the lives of children living in urban poverty through better health and education. Pragmatic, disciplined and innovative in our approach and global in our perspective, the Foundation seeks to concentrate resources where there is opportunity to achieve direct, measurable, replicable and lasting systemic changes that improve a significant number of lives.

The Foundation is seeking an exceptional attorney to provide in-house legal services to the Foundation under the direction of the Foundation's General Counsel and in conjunction with the Foundation's existing Legal team. This position is a full-time position and is resident in the Foundation's Austin office.

Primary Position Responsibilities

- Support the Foundation's US Education Team

Provide legal support and guidance to the Foundation's US Education Team and its initiatives and programs in urban education across the US, including charter schools and performance management data systems

Provide legal support and guidance to the Foundation's US 'Dell Scholars Program'

- Support the Foundation's South Africa Team

Provide legal support and guidance to the Foundation's South Africa Team and its initiatives and programs in R-12 education, leadership development, orphans and vulnerable children, and childhood nutrition within South Africa, as well as those in other African and "rest-of-world" countries (excluding India)

Provide ongoing regulatory compliance and other organizational support to the South Africa office and to other US-based functional teams supporting the South Africa office, working with external advisors and service providers as necessary

Provide legal support and guidance to the Foundation's South Africa-based 'Dell Young Leaders' scholarship program

- Other Responsibilities

Manage the Foundation's US federal and state corporate compliance programs

Serve as attorney lead on continued development of technology-based tools to support the Foundation's legal work and operations

Develop and implement programs, processes and tools to deliver essential training and other vital information to employees at point-of-hire and on an ongoing basis

Develop and implement a system for tracking and disseminating federal, state and international legislative and regulatory matters of importance to US private foundations

Develop Foundation policies related to its charitable activities as needed

Other duties as assigned by the General Counsel or the Leadership Team

Depending on specific experience and qualifications, additional responsibilities may include support for certain functional areas of the Foundation such as Human Resources or Finance and/or the Foundation's microfinance initiative.

Michael and Susan Dell Foundation – Legal Counsel Position (cont'd)

The successful candidate for the Legal Counsel position will demonstrate a high degree of skill in:

- Analyzing complex matters and generating a variety of creative potential solutions
- Drafting, reviewing, revising and updating grant letter templates and other documents related to grant-making and private foundation charitable distributions
- Drafting, reviewing, revising and negotiating legal agreements in support of operational and programmatic requirements
- Conducting, assimilating and distilling legal research related to tax-exempt organizations and other relevant law
- Managing effectively a large docket of internal and external legal matters of varying size and complexity across a wide variety of disciplines
- Utilizing technology in performing legal work and engaging with technology staff to develop legal team requirements and to help drive technology solutions for legal compliance, legal workflow and related needs
- Leading cross-functional initiatives effectively (e.g., developing internal policies involving collection of input from multiple teams, drafting policies for team review and discussion, and implementing final policies across the organization)
- Creating, presenting and maintaining legal training programs

In addition, the successful candidate for the Legal Counsel position will demonstrate the following characteristics:

- Intellectual horsepower
- Demonstrated legal and business acumen
- Ability to learn on the fly
- Exceptional oral and written communication skills
- Client service orientation
- Ability to work independently, with minimal supervision, on complex, lengthy projects
- Attendant to detail
- Deals effectively with ambiguity
- Self-motivation with a strong work ethic
- Ability to take ownership of tasks and drive for results
- Creative problem-solving orientation and consensus-building skills
- Ability to provide actionable advice
- Ability to think strategically without sacrificing knowledge and control of the details
- Highest level of ethics and professional integrity
- Maintains confidentiality
- Exercises discretion and sound judgment
- Passion for non-profit service and the Foundation's mission

Additional Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree and J.D. from a high-caliber US accredited college or university
- Bar admission in at least one US jurisdiction
- Texas State Bar membership or willingness to obtain Texas State Bar membership
- Minimum five (5) years experience with high caliber law firm(s)
- In-house counsel experience in a complex, technology-driven, process and outcomes-oriented organization with operations outside the US preferred
- Experience in corporate tax and, more specifically, tax-exempt organizations law preferred
- Legal experience in India and/or South Africa a plus
- Experience working on complex financing transactions or private equity investments a plus

Note: Some domestic and international travel is a specific requirement of this position

PROJECT BLUEPRINT

a blueprint for diversity in volunteer leadership

Project Blueprint is committed to ensuring that the board leadership of our nonprofit sector reflects the rich ethnic diversity of our Houston Community. Since its inception in 1988, Project Blueprint has prepared the next generation of emerging leaders from Houston's multi cultural communities to fill key roles on boards and board committees. More than 650 well trained leaders are providing the skills, resources and diverse perspectives needed to assist nonprofit organizations in improving performance and increasing their impact in the community.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants for Project Blueprint are recruited community wide. The goal is to identify an ethnically diverse pool of individuals who have the potential to assume leadership roles in the nonprofit sector.

Candidates for the Project Blueprint program may self-submit, or may be recommended by colleagues or coworkers. Project Blueprint alumni are encouraged to recommend applicants, as are corporations and nonprofit organizations.

The program fee is $600.00 and is due after March 30, 2009, the applicant is notified of their acceptance into the program. The fee covers costs related to the program, including a two-day offsite retreat that is designed to foster camaraderie and team spirit among the participants. Participants are encouraged to seek corporate sponsorship where appropriate.

Classes convene in early spring and conclude with a recognition ceremony honoring the new Project Blueprint graduates.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Class members are chosen based on criteria that includes: professional experience, community involvement and leadership potential. Each class is demographically diverse in terms of age, gender, ethnicity, and professional occupation.

A Project Blueprint Volunteer Selection Committee reviews candidate applications, conducts personal interviews with the top applicants and selects the participants.

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

Experts in all areas of nonprofit governance lead the participants through a comprehensive curriculum covering an array of topics related to board governance, crisis communication, legal and financial issues and fundraising.

Following graduation, Project Blueprint alumni are offered volunteer placement opportunities either with United Way or other nonprofit organizations.

Project Blueprint participants enjoy these benefits:

- > Leadership Training: A series of workshop sessions that provides concentrated study of issues related to nonprofit leadership and management;
- > Teambuilding: A two-day retreat designed to build camaraderie among program participants and develop the skills that are essential to effective team interaction and functioning;
- > Volunteer Placement: Following completion of the program, Project Blueprint graduates are provided with placement opportunities in area nonprofits to exercise their new skills;
- > Project Blueprint Alumni: Graduates are important ambassadors for the program and support the annual recruitment and selection process. They have opportunity to increase their networks and to further develop their leadership skills through a variety of workshops and Project Blueprint events.

Ware, Jackson, Lee & Chambers, L.L.P.

If I weren't an attorney, I would be . . . a charitable event planner/fundraiser.

My favorite (or fantasy) vacation is . . . a small, private hotel in Tuscany or other scenic regions.

The best dessert (or other food) in the world is . . . homemade Korean; chocolate cake made from scratch, not out of a box.

In my spare time, I enjoy . . . not having to work.

In my iPod (or other mp3 device) you will find . . . mostly rock but all kinds.

My favorite movies are . . . Doubt, Lost in Translation, Pride & Prejudice.

The best restaurant in Houston is . . . Café Annie or Nam Gang on Gessner.

My favorite place in Houston is . . . my parents' rooftop on a cool day.

The sports team(s) I root for is/are . . . Team USA during the Olympics (not a huge sports fan, can you tell?).

If I won the lottery, I would . . . give more and do more of 1 and 2, above.

I recommend reading . . . Proverbs from the Old Testament – contains wisdom for life even if you aren't "religious." Psalms also.

Most AABA members probably don't know that I . . . love to sing but I'm not too good at it.

You forgot to ask me about . . . I'm Korean-American. My last name is Italian because my mother re-married.
