Asian American College and Career Day Highlights Experience and Success in Houston's Asian Communities

October 27, 2011 -- It's been said that experience is one of life's best teachers. That's the idea behind the Houston Independent School District's sixth annual Asian American College and Career Day, when Asian American middle and high school students in the Houston area learn about career options from young Asian professionals who relate their experiences leading to success.

"We have seen that as students have a chance to interact with successful Asian role models, they are often inspired to seek career opportunities that had not previously been considered," said Gordon Quan, chair of the HISD Asian Advisory Committee,

"An engaged community opens doors for our students," said HISD Superintendent Dr. Terry Grier. "Opportunity is what Houston is about."

Keynote speaker Miya Shay, reporter for KTRK Channel 13 news, will kick off this free, four-hour event, which starts at 8 a.m. on Saturday, November 19 at Bellaire High School, 5100 Maple Street in Bellaire.

With "Marketing Yourself" as this year's event theme, students will be encouraged to hone skills and practices (leadership, good interpersonal relationships, teamwork, promoting their capabilities, and good grooming habits) that enhance academic excellence.

And as in years past, Houston-area Asian American professionals serve as role models, providing students and parents with advice and information in the following areas: business, counseling and social work, creative arts, culinary arts, education, energy and engineering, entrepreneurship, health care, information technology, law enforcement/public service, legal, media, and medical. This year, speakers will be available to meet with students informally during breakfast, prior to the opening assembly.

Throughout the morning, students also will have access to local and regional college and university representatives who share information about financial aid, admissions requirements, and college life.

Special workshops will be available for parents to help them understand college and financial aid requirements and the emotional issues surrounding the transition to college. Interpreters and translators in Chinese/Mandarin, Vietnamese, and Bhutanese will ensure a high level of interest and understanding among parents.

Middle school students and their parents will also be welcomed at a one-hour session presenting information on how to prepare for high school, college, and careers.

The college and career day for students in Houston's Asian and Pacific Islander communities is a signature activity of the HISD Asian Advisory Committee, which was established in the fall of 2005 by the Superintendent of Schools.

Event partners are the University of Houston, Houston Community College, and ARAMARK.

The Houston Independent School District is the largest school district in Texas and the seventh-largest in the United States with 281 schools and more than 200,000 students. The 301-square-mile district is one of the largest employers in the Houston metropolitan area with nearly 30,000 employees. For more information, visit the HISD website at www.houstonisd.org

GET TO KNOW AN AABA MEMBER!

Name: Kei Ashizawa

Firm: Kilburn Law Firm, PLLC

Practice Areas: Oil & Gas

If I weren't an attorney, I would be . . . an entrepreneur or diplomat.

The oddest food I have ever eaten has been . . . horse. Well, no, I refused those offerings in Japan, but I have eaten the very last part of a chicken's digestive system served off of a Taipei bicycle street vendor. That is odd enough for my Texan tastebuds. It was crunchy.

In my spare time, I enjoy . . . traveling anywhere, running, networking, volunteering, my new bicycle, sleeping, international cuisine, and the outdoors – especially the beach.

If my life were a movie, it would be called . . . “Like No Other”

In my opinion, the best restaurant in Houston is . . . too difficult to determine, but shout out to my restaurateur friend from my Maui days, Hicham Nafaa of Mia Bella, Majorca, and other great dining establishments. He welcomes the AABA with a 10% discount at Majorca in midtown. Just mention the AABA!

The coolest store in Houston is . . . Whole Foods. I live next door to one and love it, but my wallet doesn't. I hear Trader Joe's is coming to town and I can't wait!

The sports team(s) I root for is/are . . . Bellaire High School Women's Lacrosse Club, of which I am the head Varsity coach! GO CARDINALS!!!

My decade for music is the _____ and my favorite song is . . . 90's hop-hop and Marley era reggae. I don't have a favorite song, but there is something to be said about music that is the voice of its people.

My favorite quote is . . . “You don't ask; you don't get.” –Momma

Most AABA members probably don't know that I . . . participated in the Emerging Leader Program of the US-Japan Council this October. The program exposed me to powerful Japanese American leaders, including Senator Inouye, who share the common purpose of advancing Asian Americans and the international bridges we build.

You forgot to ask me about . . . my favorite mentor, Donna Fujimoto Cole, President and CEO of Cole Chemical. I owe so much to her. Beyond running her own successful company, she is an energetic activist for Asian Americans and women, a philanthropist, and an all around wonderful human being. I believe Houston's Asian community will continue to advance so long as we strive to be like those great leaders before us, like Donna.

If I weren't an attorney, I would be . . . running a nonprofit and building schools in Vietnam.

The oddest food I have ever eaten has been . . . (unwittingly) goat brains while travelling in Vietnam.

In my spare time, I enjoy . . . watching movies, TVs, and very rarely--reading.

If my life were a movie, it would be called . . . "Boats and Ho's."

In my opinion, the best restaurant in Houston is . . . Saigon Pagolac for the seven course beef meal.

The coolest store in Houston is . . . not in Houston but online—toss-up between Amazon.com and Newegg.com.

The sports team(s) I root for is/are . . . all major league sports in Houston starting with the Rockets, Texans, Astros, and Dynamos.

My decade for music is the 80's and my favorite song is . . . Pet Shop Boys – It's a Sin.

My favorite quote is . . . "only a life lived for others is worth living." –Albert Einstein

Most AABA members probably don't know that I . . . was a Varsity swimmer in High School and competed in amateur swim leagues during the summer.

You forgot to ask me about . . . my childhood as a refugee.
