Dear Sir or Madam:

Founded in 1984 and celebrating our 28th anniversary this year, the Asian American Bar Association of Houston (the "AABA") is a voluntary association of lawyers, judges, and law students who are of Asian-Pacific heritage or who have interests in Houston's Asian-Pacific community. The AABA is continuing the development of its charitable affiliate organization, the Asian American Bar Foundation (the "AABF"). The AABF's mission is to educate and serve Asian-Pacific American lawyers and Asian American communities in the greater Houston area and surrounding counties and to promote Asian-Pacific Americans in all areas of legal practice, thereby promoting diversity in the legal community and improving access to justice for all Houstonians.

The AABA will be holding its Annual Gala & Silent Auction on September 14, 2012 at the Omni Houston Hotel at Galleria. This year's Gala, we are expecting several hundred corporate, legal, and civic leaders from the greater Houston area to join us for this very special evening. The Silent Auction is one of the most popular and anticipated attractions of the Gala, and we hope to offer some memorable and exciting auction items.

The Silent Auction would not be possible without the generous support of our community partners and businesses like yours. We have enclosed a donation form for your consideration. All proceeds from the Silent Auction will be donated to the AABF's endowment, which will be used to fund scholarships, grants, and programs in furtherance of the AABF's mission. The AABF is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, and your donation to the Silent Auction is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. In addition to having your business associated with this worthy charity, your business will have valuable exposure to the AABA's members and supporters and the hundreds of attendees of this event. We hope that you will take advantage of this fantastic advertising opportunity and join us in making this year's Gala and Silent Auction a success.

Please complete the enclosed donation form to accompany your Silent Auction donation. If you are donating services or non-tangible items, please provide a certificate, letter, or voucher that the winning bidder can redeem for such services or items. If you are donating tangible items, we can make arrangements to pick the items up at your convenience. Completed forms and donations may be mailed to Sharon Yin c/o Lam, Lyn & Philip, P.C. at 3555 Timmons Lane, Suite 790, Houston, Texas 77027. Your prompt response is greatly appreciated. Please respond by July 2, 2012 to ensure your inclusion in this year's Silent Auction.

Thank you in advance for your consideration. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Very truly yours,

Sharon Yin

AABF's 2012 National Conference of Vietnamese
American Attorneys Scholarship
Application Guidelines
2012

The Asian American Bar Foundation of Houston, Inc. seeks to award two $1,000 scholarships in support of the 2012 National Conference of Vietnamese American Attorneys. The AABF's 2012 NCVAA Scholarship will be awarded to individual applicants who (1) have excelled academically and in extra-curricular activities, (2) demonstrated dedication to serving the public, and (3) supported the Asian American community in the greater Houston area. The foregoing criteria may be weighed in any order as determined by the AABF.

To be eligible, an applicant must be (i) a Vietnamese member of the AABA of Houston, (ii) enrolled in an ABA-accredited law school in Texas, and (iii) reside in, or reasonably demonstrates a clear intention to reside and seek employment in the greater Houston area after graduation. Applicants should submit application packages containing the following information to the AABF Scholarship/Grant Committee, where applicable:

1. Name of applicant
2. Contact information (name, address, telephone number, e-mail address)
3. Name of school
4. School address and contact information for registrar's office
5. Degree sought
6. Expected graduation date
7. Copy of transcript, GPA and class rank (if available) or other proof of enrollment at an ABA-accredited law school in Texas
8. Educational background
9. Course work, clinics or other relevant extracurricular activities at current or previous schools relevant to AABF's purposes listed above
10. Employment history (if any)
11. Employment experience relevant to the criteria listed above
12. Community and volunteer experience relevant to criteria listed above
13. Involvement with Asian American community relevant to criteria listed above
14. Leadership experience, if any

15. Independent research or publications, if any
16. Awards, honors, scholarships received
17. Other activities, hobbies, skills, positions held in any organizations, etc.
18. Any other information that applicant desires to provide to assist in the application process
19. Cover letter stating how the applicant demonstrates or embodies the criteria set forth above

Each scholarship recipient will receive a $1,000 scholarship to help cover tuition and academic expenses. The scholarships will be awarded on Saturday, May 19, 2012 at a Banquet Dinner at Fung's Kitchen Seafood Restaurant at the conclusion of the 2012 National Conference of Vietnamese American Attorneys which is being held in Houston this year (recipients will receive 1 ticket to the Dinner). Each scholarship recipient is required to submit a final report the following year updating the AABF on the status of the recipient's studies and activities and how the scholarship has helped the recipient.

Scholarship applicants are advised to use these application guidelines as a reference and checklist to ensure that all necessary information is provided with the original application package. The AABF Scholarship/Grant Committee may contact applicants if additional information is required, but the AABF Scholarship/Grant Committee reserves the right at its sole discretion to disqualify application packages from consideration if key information is not included. The AABF reserves the right to subdivide the scholarships or increase the number of scholarships in its sole discretion.

Application packages must be postmarked no later than April 30, 2012, and mailed to the following address:

Asian American Bar Foundation of Houston, Inc.
Attn: Scholarship/Grant Committee
P.O. Box 1351
Houston, Texas 77252

Applications may be accepted by electronic mail at hvu@gardere.com provided with the consent of Hoang Quan Vu, the AABF Chair. For additional information, please contact Hoang Quan Vu at (713) 276-5174 or hvu@gardere.com.

SAVE THE DATE!

Join us for a Legal Round-Up

NCVAA 2012

Houston, Texas, May 18 -19, 2012

The National Conference for Vietnamese American Attorneys 2012 (“NCVAA”) is pleased to announce that this year’s conference will be held May 18-19, 2012 in Houston, Texas. On behalf of the conference committee, we ask for your support.

This year’s conference, based on the theme “Legal Round-Up,” marks the sixth occasion Vietnamese American attorneys from all over the nation will convene to discuss issues and experiences of interest to the Vietnamese legal community. This is the first time the NCVAA will be held in Texas.

The Houston Conference Committee is thrilled to show southern hospitality to our colleagues and friends. The conference will commence with a Welcome Reception on the evening of May 18. The full-day conference will take place on May 19 at Norris Conference Centers, City Centre, 803 Town and Country Blvd., Suite 210, Houston, Texas 77024 and will feature a series of esteemed speakers and panelists. A block of rooms are on hold on a limited basis with Hotel Sorella, 800 Sorella Court, Houston, Texas 77024, which is immediately adjacent to the Norris Conference Center, for conference attendees and guests.

The conference will conclude with a Banquet Dinner at Fung’s Kitchen, 7320 Southwest Freeway, Suite 115, Houston, Texas 77074, and two local law students will be presented with scholarships in recognition of their commitment to the Vietnamese American community.

This event provides opportunities to network with prominent judges, attorneys, government officials, and scholars. To learn more about NCVAA, please visit our website at www.ncvaa.org.

We hope you will support NCVAA 2012 and join us for the reception, conference, and/or dinner. The levels of sponsorship are attached for your review. A member of NCVAA will be contacting you in the near future to discuss your potential sponsorship. For your convenience, we have also included a Save the Date and the Conference Registration Package information.

We are very excited about this event, and hope to count on your generous support.

If you would like to be included on the NCVAA ListServ, please e-mail Catherine Than at CThan@bickerstaff.com with your contact information.

Senior Counsel, In-House Retail Leasing

General Summary

Weingarten Realty Investors is currently searching for a Senior In-House Counsel with significant retail leasing experience. Our corporate structure affords the Senior Counsel the opportunity to actively participate in the business process while managing the contract negotiations from start to finish. The ideal candidate will be a self-starter who is production-oriented, and is comfortable with making decisions, as appropriate.

The Senior Counsel performs varied legal duties primarily for the asset management departments of the company with an emphasis on retail leasing and property management. The Senior Counsel drafts and negotiates leases, amendments, and other agreements related to the leasing and management of commercial real estate. The Senior Counsel reports to the Vice President/General Counsel who also manages the Legal-Leasing Division.

Essential Functions

- Draft and negotiate complex lease and lease-related documents with anchor and national or regional tenants
- Draft and negotiate other legal documents relating to the management of real estate assets
- Manage transactions to completion including coordination with various departments including Leasing, Construction, Property Management, and others to discuss and confirm deal terms, and dissemination of critical deal information throughout the organization
- Respond to tenant requests and resolve tenant disputes prior to litigation
- Provide support to the Legal-Growth Division in connection with new development projects and asset dispositions
- Supervise and provide support to one or more legal assistants

Education and Experience

- Requires JD degree from an accredited law school
- A minimum of 10 years experience in commercial real estate law with substantial experience in retail leasing (preferably from a landlord or developer perspective)
- Management experience required (i.e. attorneys or legal assistants)
- Experience in a corporate legal department is preferred
- Licensed to practice law in the State of Texas

If you refer someone for this position and he/she is hired and retained for 90 days, you will be eligible to receive an ASSOCIATE REFERRAL BONUS of $2500. This bonus will be paid in the pay period following the new Associate's completion of 90 days of employment and will be processed as a payroll check, subject to applicable taxes and any 401k and ESPP deductions.*
